MEMO: 2018 Friends of the Glenwood Springs Airport Scholarship Announcement
DATE: December 13, 2017
TO: Graduating seniors of: Coal Ridge, Glenwood Springs, Rifle & Roaring Fork High Schools

Friends of the Glenwood Springs Airport is a non-profit organization established in 2005 by local area pilots and flight enthusiasts. Each school year the Friends award up to two scholarships for up to $2,000 each to academically strong graduating seniors who plan to make the field of aviation a part of their daily lives.

Motivated, well-rounded students who strive for excellence and have an interest in flying, or in the field of aviation, are encouraged to apply. Eligible students must be a graduating senior who are going to pursue a career in aviation, a pilot's license, or a course of study through a four-year program or technical school geared toward a career in aviation. Financial need is not a requirement. This scholarship is open to all students.

To apply, submit the list below to your school counselor by February 14, 2018.

- Your school's generic scholarship application
- Three letters of recommendation
- Current transcript
- One page letter detailing your interests and goals in the field of aviation

Counselors will be notified of the recipient(s) by March 16, 2018.

Counselors, please contact Caitlin DeCrow at 970-945-8575 or CDeCrow@dalbycpa.com with any questions.
